Tips for Working a Job Fair

Allow yourself plenty of time.

Dress appropriately to make a positive first impression.

Upon arrival, scout out the room and decide which employers you most want to meet.

Be considerate of the employer's/recruiter's time.

Be prepared to describe your qualifications and the kind of work you are looking for.

Network with other job seekers.

Collect handouts and business cards from employers.

Follow-up with employers after the Job Fair.
